To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that I recommend Mr. Kim to your organization. I own and operate a translation company in Seoul, Korea, and work with hundreds of professional translators and linguists.

My employees and I have worked closely with Mr. Kim for the past five years, and we all agree on his advanced understanding of languages. We rarely find the need to run Mr. Kim's works by another translator, have yet to identify a major translation mistake, and are all very much impressed with his professional approach work ethics. He is honest and hardly misses a deadline. If there is a possibility of late delivery, he makes sure to let us know well in advance so that we can make the necessary adjustments to our project schedule. Further, Mr. Kim has always been positive in answering and responding to client inquiries and feedback, making it incredibly easier for us to keep our client satisfaction rate up to par.

Mr. Kim is also very technologically competent. He has displayed mastery of pretty much all application formats we use in our industry and his deliverables are almost always in publication-ready conditions. In fact, I don't remember that many times when we had to send Mr. Kim's works to our DTP department.

Mr. Kim has worked on countless projects with us, covering all subjects and fields conceivable. Being first and foremost a business owner, my greatest appreciation for Mr. Kim is that clients he helped service remain with our company and even go out of their way to refer others to us.

I can say without exaggeration that any company afforded with Mr. Kim's services is fortunate, for such company will realize greater Korean translation quality and status in its industry as we have. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Kim Nak-hee
