To Whom It May Concern,

I write to you today to introduce one of our lead translators, Chris Kim.

Over the years, my staff and I have relied on Chris's expertise on numerous translation projects for some of our most valued clients and come to confide in the quality of his work.

Chris is a professional, reliable, and accessible translator who is well versed in all of the latest assistance technologies and is one of our strongest assets in this competitive field. If you are looking for precise and clear conveyance of meanings in your Korean-related translation work, I know of no translator better suited and qualified for the job than Chris. Thank you.

Regards,

Seo Chang-beom, Managing Director
